HSBC APPOINTS NEW GLOBAL BANKING VICE CHAIRMAN IN JAPAN

Hideo Nagura has been appointed Vice Chairman, Global Banking, The Hongkong Shanghai and Banking Corporation in Japan, effective from 1 July, 2018.

Mr. Nagura joins HSBC from GCA Corporation, where he was a managing director. He has almost three decades of financial industry experience in commercial banking, M&A and investment banking in Japan, Hong Kong and the USA. His experience and strong network of relationships will support the further growth of our business in Japan across multiple product and service offerings.

Locally, Mr. Nagura will report to Japan Country Manager Olivier Pacton and functionally to the Co-Heads of Global Banking, Asia-Pacific, Che Ning Liu and Martin Haythorne.

Mr. Nagura's predecessor, Yasuki Matsui, has been appointed Vice Chairman to HSBC Securities (Japan) Limited and to The Hongkong and Shanghai Banking Corporation Limited in Japan, effective 1 July 2018, following the retirement of Yoneo Sakai.
