HSBC NAMED “JAPAN’S BEST BANK FOR LARGE CORPORATES” IN 2026 BY EUROMONEY

HSBC has been recognised as “Japan’s Best Bank for Large Corporates” at the Euromoney Awards for Excellence 2026. HSBC has won three awards in total for its performance in Japan, including “Japan’s Best Bank for Diversity and Inclusion” and “Japan’s Best for Securities Services”. The awards reflect the Bank’s unwavering commitment to customer-centricity, technological innovation, and operational excellence.

Takeo Kaneko, CEO and Head of Banking, HSBC Group Japan, stated: “We’re immensely proud to have received this recognition by Euromoney. The awards are a testament to the trust and partnership we enjoy with our clients and the effort our teams contribute every day. We’re committed to listening, innovating, and working even harder to help our customers continue to thrive.”

Our Group Chief Executive Georges Elhedery was awarded Global Banker of the Year, while across Asia, HSBC won some of Euromoney’s most competitive categories, including Best Bank in Asia.

These awards, each at every level - locally, regionally, and globally - reflect the operational excellence we delivered within our new simple and agile structure.

The Euromoney Awards for Excellence are widely regarded as the industry benchmark, celebrating institutions that demonstrate exceptional leadership in delivering comprehensive, high-quality services to their clients.
